Last updated: 24th of October, 2018

Please read these Terms and Conditions ("Terms", "Terms and Conditions") carefully before becoming a member of the International Association of Memory ("IAM", "us", "we", or "our").

Your rights as a member is conditioned on your acceptance of and compliance with these Terms. By becoming a member you agree to be bound by these Terms. If you disagree with any part of the terms then you may not become a member.

1. General information about Membership

Anyone can become a member of IAM. You become a member by registering yourself via the relevant form on the IAM website, and by following the instructions on that page. If you are under 16 years old, you also need the approval of your legal guardian in order to become a member.

When registering as a member, you also agree that we may treat your personal information according to our Privacy Policy. We encourage you to read it and contact us if you have any questions about it.

Your membership with IAM is personal and can not be transferred or used by someone else.

Your membership may only be used for non-commercial use. You are not allowed to use the membership in such a way that IAM or others suffer from inconvenience or injury. You may not violate German law and you must follow the rules set out by the IAM.

We mainly communicate with you as a member through our digital communication channels. By becoming a member of IAM, you agree to receive communications from us, via email, concerning your membership.

As a member of IAM, you might have the right to vote in certain elections inside the IAM. To check your eligibility, please refer to the election rules.

2. Membership Period and Termination

Your membership with IAM starts when you become a member, and is valid indefinitely, or until the membership is revoked by you or the IAM. You can revoke your membership with the IAM at any time.

We may terminate or suspend your membership immediately, without prior notice or liability, if it is deemed that you have breached these terms or acted against the values of the IAM.

3. Governing Law

These Terms shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Germany, without regard to its conflict of law provisions.

Our failure to enforce any right or provision of these Terms will not be considered a waiver of those rights. If any provision of these Terms is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court, the remaining provisions of these Terms will remain in effect. These Terms constitute the entire agreement between us regarding your membership, and supersede and replace any prior agreements we might have between us regarding your membership.

4. Changes

We reserve the right to modify or replace these Terms at any time. If we make a substantial change, we will provide at least 30 days notice prior to any new terms taking effect. What constitutes a substantial change will be determined at our sole discretion.

By continuing to be a member after those changes become effective, you agree to be bound by the revised terms. If you do not agree to the new terms, please stop being a member.
